

VITAMIN K₃ - 10%

(Injectable solution)

COMPOSITION: Each ml contains:

Vitamin k3 (menadione sodium bisulfate) 100 mg

INDICATIONS:

For cattle, sheep, horses, dogs and cats.

- Cases of epistaxis in equines.

Jaundice in new-borns, bleeding troubles, anaemia, heavy metals intoxication, hepatic and intestinal disorders.

Therapeutic and preventive bleeding measure in cases of delivery and surgery.

- Vitamin K is used as an antidote in cases of poisoning with anticoagulants such as coumarin compounds in cats, cattle, sheep, horses and dogs

DOSAGE:

Via intramuscular or subcutaneous injection

Preventive of hemorrhages before surgery:

1 mg / kg b. wt / day during 4 days previous to surgery

Hemorrhages: 2 mg/ kg repeating at 6 hour if necessary

Coumarin intoxication: 5 – 10 mg/ kg.bw/ day

Storage condition:

Keep in dry, dark place at below 30 C°.

For vet. use only